About the area

Benahavís

Benahavís is located south in Spain's southernmost autonomous region on the mainland, Andalucía. This small village is part of the Costa del Sol, which consists of coastal towns and small communities in the western part of the province of Málaga, bordering the provinces of Cádiz, Seville, Córdoba and Granada.

Placed northeast of Gibraltar, northwest of Puerto Banús and west of the center of Marbella, Benahavís is the highest small town on the western part of the Costa del Sol because of its position on the southern face of the La Serrania de Ronda mountain range. The landscape is miraculously decorated with flowers, palms and other vegetation, is surrounded by beautiful mountains and has a magnificent view of Nueva Andalucía and the Mediterranean.
